To Break Stone

Somebody Had to Hold the Wedge

Yesterday they were breaking concrete in one of our Hope filling stations and I saw something that stirred up boyhood memories. One man was swinging a sledgehammer and another man was holding the wedge, or drill.

Ours was a Northern mountain farm. We lived out there five months of the year, usually May through September — because the roads didn't thaw out before May, and the Canadian blasts returned to their kill in September.

In case you never lived on — or perhaps never even saw — a Northern mountain farm I'll let you in on one of the rougher facts of life: There's a lot of rock.

Every cultivated field has one or more places where the ledge comes so close to the surface it threatens to tear up plow-points — and each Spring the farm crew has the toilsome job of chipping and blasting a little more off the ledge so field cultivation will be easier in the years to come.

So it was a familiar sight every spring: Cracking up slabs of rock with sledgehammer and wedge. One man on the sledgehammer. That would be my father, home early Saturday afternoon from town. And another guy holding the wedge he was hammering on. That would be me. I use the word "me" advisedly. I have just the right ungrammatical note to express the discontent of a guy who is not certain how long he will keep both hands in working condition.

I was the oldest son. Therefore I was elected to hold the wedge. It was before the coming of the word "expendable" — but anyone who ever held the wedge on a rock job could have thought that one up himself.

The only time I ever got out of the wedge-holding job was one Fourth of July when the boss had the ill-conceived idea of spending the holiday on a rock job instead of taking the family on an excursion to a nearby lake. There was trouble with the three sons. I was replaced at the wedge-holding position by my second brother. Later, the head of the house dispensed with him, too, and the wedge being then firmly fixed in the rock, father took a swing at it with the sledgehammer. The wedge flew out — and nicked him in the ankle. We helped him to the house — and in the afternoon we got over to the lake on that excursion anyhow.

Rock is a rough deal any way you look at it.

Especially for the guy who has to hold the wedge.

But it's like every other job on earth: If you're going to crack rock the wedge has to be held by somebody.

People Behind Curtain Pray for War

Boston, May 25 — (P) — The people behind the iron curtain are praying for war between the United States and Russia to deliver them from oppression, according to Rep. Walter H. Judd (R-Minn.).

Judd told the Northern Baptist convention last night that in five Eastern European countries he visited within the Soviet sphere he found the people have "such a hatred for their oppressors that they are praying for war."

Judd returned this week from a world health organization meeting in Geneva. He did not disclose which countries he visited.

A medical missionary in China before the last war, Judd belittled reports that Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations went to Moscow to try to negotiate peace in the cold war.

"There is no way to end the cold war but to win it," the Minnesotan said.

The Rev. Dr. G. Pitt Beers of New York City, executive secretary of the American Baptist home mission society told the 3,000 delegates that un-Christian conduct by Americans handicaps the church abroad.

He said that un-Christian conduct means "hanging chains on our missionaries' hands and weights on their feet."

"When a nation becomes the wealthiest and most powerful in the world," he said, "its character becomes a matter of world interest."

Body of Youth Found in Drainage Ditch

Jonesboro, May 25 — (P) — The body of a two-year-old boy was found floating in a drainage ditch in southeast Craighead county Tuesday afternoon by the town's father.

Indications were that little Randall Tyler fell into the ditch while playing near his farm home in the Bunn community.

Henry Tyler, father of the boy, said he recovered the body within five minutes after the child wandered from the yard and fell into the ditch, but was unable to revive the boy with artificial respiration.

U. S. Will Not Support Sino Reds in U. N.

Washington, May 25 — (UP) — U. S. officials said today Britain will have to go it alone in its efforts to seat the Chinese Communist delegation at the United Nations.

Diplomatic sources said the United States would not support Britain's efforts to oust the Chinese Nationalists from the UN and replace them with Communists. They added, however, that it would not formally object to such a move.

Britain's position was outlined in the house of commons yesterday by Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin. He said Britain would try to muster enough votes in the security council to resolve the long UN deadlock over China in favor of the Peipin regime.

U. S. officials said the British move, if successful, would put the United States in the peculiar position of dealing with two Chinese "governments" — the Red delegation at the UN and the Nationalist embassy here.

They said, however, that such a situation would have no bearing whatever on the touchy question of U. S. recognition of the Chinese Communist regime.

GE Workers to Decide on Union

Baltimore, May 25 — (P) — Thousands of employees in 57 General Electric plants voted to decide which of two electrical unions was to represent them — the new CIO group or the union the CIO expelled last year.

The balloting, with some 95,000 workers eligible, is being superintended by the Baltimore regional office of the national labor relations board.

Results will be tabulated here tonight. NLRB officials expect them to be complete sometime after midnight.

The vote will determine representation for each plant. It may be that GE will be divided among the bitterly competitive unions. The CIO's new international Union of Electrical Workers or the United Electrical Workers.

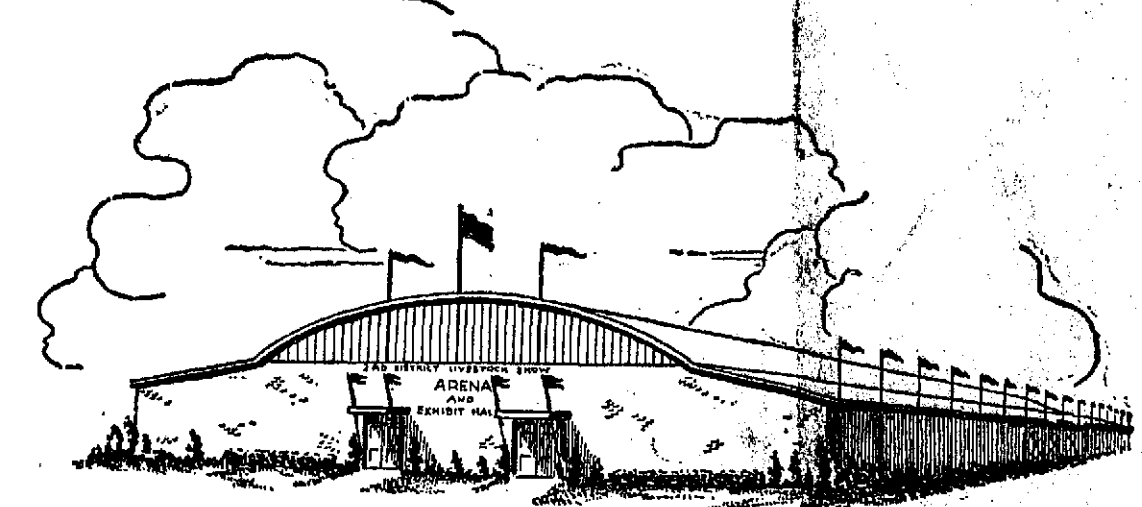

IUE officials insist that the vote is on a Communist issue. The UOE was expelled from the CIO for alleged Communist domination. Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin last Sunday joined CIO Chief Philip Murray at an anti-IUE rally and both men said the union was Red-controlled.

Won't Fire Denham Says Truman

Washington, May 25 — (P) — President Truman said today he has no plans to fire Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the national labor relations board.

A reporter asked Mr. Truman at his news conference whether he planned to dismiss Denham.

The President said he does not intend to go into any phase of the NLRB setup right now. He said he had sent a plant to congress and that it was rejected.

He said he has a lot of other problems and for the present he does not intend to do anything, about the NLRB matter.

The senate recently rejected a government reorganization proposal under which Denham's independent status as NLRB general counsel would have been wiped out. His duties would have been transferred to the NLRB itself.

Senate Awaits Amerasia Testimony

Washington, May 25 — (P) — Senators investigating the mysterious Amerasia case of 1945 awaited a confidential report today from William J. (Wild Bill) Donovan.

He headed the super-secret wartime office of strategic services (OSS). Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) made ready, meanwhile, to make public what he described as important documentary information dealing with his "Communist" charges against Owen Lattimore, writer and specialist on the Far East.

McCarthy promised to provide the data when he speaks tonight (6 p. m. EST) to a convention of Catholic editors in Rochester, N. Y.

Edward P. Morgan, chief counsel for a senate foreign relations sub-committee conducting the Amerasia inquiry, disclosed that members of the group's staff — made up of former FBI agents — questioned Donovan about the case in New York yesterday.

Also questioned there, Morgan told reporters, was Archibald Van Beuren, who helped handle the Amerasia case for the OSS.

Morgan said material obtained from Donovan and Van Beuren would be brought from New York today for study by the committee members.

The Amerasia magazine case broke in June 1945, three months after OSS agent Frank Bielecki raided the publication's New York headquarters and found a mass of secret government documents. The magazine, no longer published, was a Far Eastern affairs organ.

The FBI followed up the OSS raid with one of its own, which also produced a lot of secret federal documents. As a result, six persons were arrested. They included two state department employees, career diplomat John S. Service and Emmanuel Larsen, and the editor of Amerasia, Philip Jaffe.

Jaffe and Larsen were fined after pleading guilty to charges of conspiracy to obtain illegal possession of government documents. Service was cleared and returned to duty in the state department. He and two others were not indicted. The sixth case was dropped.

Lawyer Sees No Evidence to Murder Charge

Santiago, Cuba, May 25 — (P) — The attorney for Mrs. Karen Nelson of Union, Mich., says there is "no evidence whatsoever" to back up charges against her of murdering her cane planter husband.

The attorney, Dr. Rafael Molinos, issued a statement branding the arrest of Georgia-educated Mrs. Nelson as "without legal foundation." He expressed confidence a special judge named recently to investigate her detention in woman's prison at Guanajay, near Havana, would prove her innocence.

Mrs. Nelson's arrest March 11 has brought a storm of protest from American residents in Cuba and from the Cuban press.

The U. S. embassy filed a formal request for appointment of a special judge and a complete investigation. In diplomatic language it hinted the embassy thought Mrs. Nelson's arrest improper.

State Dept. Starts New Secret Probe

Washington, May 25 — (P) — The state department will start tomorrow a new and secrecy-shrouded probe into the loyalty of career diplomat John S. Service, named by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) as a pro-Communist. Service insists he is loyal.

The hearing before a three-man panel from the department's loyalty and security board will be held behind closed doors. Even the identities of the panel members were withheld.

Service, who was recalled to this country, and a score of his witnesses will testify in what his attorney calls an effort to clear Service's record "once and for all."

The veteran diplomat, a specialist in Far Eastern affairs, has been investigated and cleared a number of times since he was accused and exonerated in the 1945 Amerasia case. That case involved charges that solten state department documents were turned over to the magazine Amerasia.

Strike Brings Atom Plant Shutdown

Oak Ridge, Tenn., May 25 — (P) — A mammoth atomic plant construction project was shutdown completely today by a wildcat walkout of AFL workers.

The strike, which members of the laborers and hodcarriers union spread to all other crafts working on the project, the atomic energy commission reported.

The project is completely shut down, said an AEC spokesman. "We haven't been informed by the union or anybody else as to what the walkout is all about."

"The laborers started the strike yesterday and today the craftsmen joined them," the spokesman, who withheld use of his name, added.

The strike came a day after an arbitration board had ended a hearing on a wage dispute involving the laborers and hodcarriers' union.

Some 3,000 workers are affected by the walkout. The AFL Crafts involved are members of the Knoxville Building Trades Council, whose officials were not immediately available for comment.

Picket lines were established outside the various entrances to this atomic city early today, and by mid-morning pickets also appeared near a gate to the restricted area.

One union official, John S. Turner, a conciliation consultant for the hodcarriers, joined the AEC in saying he didn't know what brought about the walkout.

"I haven't the slightest idea who the investigators of this thing are," said Turner, adding that the union did not authorize the strike.

Turner said he would "talk to the boys" again and try to get them back on the job.

Lie's Hint of Peace Looked on With Skepticism

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, May 25 — (P) — American policy officials from President Truman down today evidenced a cautious and skeptical attitude toward Trygve Lie's belief that negotiations to end the cold war are possible.

Mr. Truman was asked at his news conference what he thought about the U. N. secretary general's efforts to arrange negotiations among the United States, Britain, France, Russia and possibly other leading United Nations members.

The chief executive answered carefully that he knows nothing about Lie's efforts and will make no statement on them until he has talked with the secretary of state.

Washington, May 25 — (P) — State department officials view with deep skepticism the report from U. N. Secretary Trygve Lie, after a visit to Moscow, that constructive negotiations to end the cold war are possible.

No one on Capitol Hill came forward, either, to say that Lie is correct. Rep. Eaton (R-N.J.), top Republican on the house foreign affairs committee, said that he hopes Lie is right, but "nothing has shown any reason to believe Russian promises."

President Truman will have opportunity at a news conference today (9:30 a. m. EST) to comment on Lie's expressed hopefulness, if he desires. The President has recently taken an optimistic line in talking about the world situation, and any formal comments he makes may stress this aspect and deviate from the privately expressed opinions of some of his diplomatic advisers.

Those authorities seem entirely convinced that at this time and for the foreseeable future neither side in the cold war is prepared to make the concrete concessions or compromises which, in their view, might lead to a true East-West settlement.

Moreover, they believe that, barring a major change on one side or the other, a formal diplomatic meeting would bring little if any relief from the present tensions of political conflict.

They predict, however, that if Lie succeeds in getting general consent for a special meeting of the United Nations security council, to be attended by foreign ministers of the member nations late next summer, Secretary of State Acheson will be on hand.

Little is known, even in the inner circles of the government here, of Premier Stalin's reaction to Lie's peace-making proposals when the two met ten days ago. According to diplomatic reports, as yet officially unconfirmed to the American government by Lie, Stalin was non-committal, although he did not close any doors on future developments.

Employee Takes Stand in Liquor Case

Memphis, Tenn., May 25 — (P) — An employee of one of seven defendants charged with possessing a portion of $22,000 worth of hijacked whisky says he doesn't know what happened to liquor he bought at Cairo, Ill.

R. D. Senter of Fulton, Miss., testified yesterday that John A. Peterson, a defendant, paid him $100 a week "just to sign for" the liquor purchased from J. B. Wenger's warehouse at Cairo.

Senter was recalled to the stand for questioning in the eighth day of the trial. Senter identified eight invoices for whisky dated Dec. 27, 28 and 30 when questioned by defense attorneys.

The FBI agent said armed men seized 540 cases of whisky being trucked from Lawrenceburg, Ind., to Cairo on New Year's eve near Cairo.

Co-op 'Hot Potato' Before House Group

Washington, May 25 — (P) — A political hot potato — taxation of farmer and consumer co-ops — dropped into the house ways and means committee today. Chairman Doughton (D-MC) called for a vote on the issue.

Rep. Mason (R-IL) proposed a tax system for co-ops that he said would yield the government about $600,000,000 a year.

The committee turned to the co-op tax problem after it voted yesterday to give income tax dodgers one last chance to settle up voluntarily with Uncle Sam, before the justice department cracks down with criminal prosecutions.

Under present government regulations, tax evaders — under certain circumstances — can avoid fines and imprisonment by confessing their tax sins and paying up.

But the committee decided to write the "amnesty" provision into law, so that the evaders would have legal protection against prosecution when they voluntarily disclosed that they have not reported their full tax obligation.

Sees No Need for Super Government

Washington, May 25 — (P) — President Truman said today he sees no reason for a super government in this country.

That was his reaction to a proposal to set up a commission on national security to study security measures.

He said he is trying to run the government under the constitution and he will continue to do so.

His statement came at a news conference when he was asked for comment on a Washington Post editorial proposing the bipartisan commission.

The post suggested the agency could survey such questions as fifth columns, civilian defense, development of new weapons and size and use of military expenditures.

Allies Agree to Supply Arms to Middle East

Washington, May 25 — (P) — United States, Britain and France today announced a joint agreement to supply arms to the Middle East — for defense against the Soviet Union.

President Truman hailed the move to stimulate "increased confidence in future security in the area."

The President expressed view in a statement, common to all three powers, accorded at London during the Anglo-American conference on the Middle East.

Under the agreement, the U. S. will supply arms to the Middle East and Israel, it was stated, they will use the arms in the event of aggression against the state.

The agreement marked a long-standing difference between the Western powers in the question of providing weapons to forces recently engaged in fighting over the partition of Palestine.

Draftless Draft Up to the Senate

Washington, May 25 — (P) — Life expectancy of the nation's draft machinery became the Senate's problem today, following a wheeling-house approval of a year standby selective service law.

The measure, which passed late yesterday, by a 61-31 vote would do little to change the draft in readiness for the nation's youth would be regular and available if needed.

With an eye to the tense international situation, house members put up little resistance to the bill, so that the evaders would have legal protection against prosecution when they voluntarily disclosed that they have not reported their full tax obligation.

In the house debate, Rep. Son (D-Ga.) voiced the hope for an M-day plan for labor, industry and manpower would be ready January.

Vinson, chairman of the national house armed services committee, directed his hint at W. Symington, newly named man of the NSRB and former secretary for air.

The Georgian was applying when he suggested that a stand M-day bill be ready for the congress.

The present draft law expires June 24. The bill passed yesterday would continue the registration classification of 18-year-olds 1952. But actual inductions would be prohibited until congress cleared the existence of a national emergency.

The so-called "draftless law" was entitled the military registration act of 1950 in keeping with elimination of compulsory induction requirements. Technically it is an extension of the 1948 selective service act.

But it was cool today in Great Plains, the upper Mississippi valley and the northern central Rockies. Temperatures dropped to near or slightly below freezing in parts of the country.

Some light snow also fell in the north.

There were several wet and cool days. There were rain and thundershowers from Kansas and Oklahoma to western Nebraska and Dakota. Some thunderstorms were reported in Ohio and the Atlantic coast from North Carolina northward. Skies were clear in other parts of the country.

he studied law, and was admitted to the bar to practice in 1927. He has continuously practiced law in the state and federal courts ever since that date. He has been the defense lawyer in many of the outstanding criminal cases in this part of the state. He has prosecuted all types of criminal cases, having been the deputy prosecuting attorney for Clark county since January 1, 1947, and has been employed as special prosecutor in a number of cases where citizens felt that stronger prosecution was desirable.

He is now 46 years of age, married, and has one son 13 years of age. He has been a steward of the Methodist church for a number of years. In 1938 he was elected representative of Clark county. In 1940 he was elected state senator of the 15th Senatorial District, consisting of Clark, Grant and Hot Spring counties, and was re-elected in 1944 without opposition and served in the senate for eight years. During that time he was an outstanding member of the legislature. He introduced and supported numerous bills to help the aged and afflicted, to forward the betterment of the schools, and to have good roads. His work was recognized by the members of the press covering the legislature by being chosen one of the five outstanding members of the senate by this group. They based their selection upon the type of bills and legislation sponsored, conduct, and leadership in the senate. He was also chosen during that time as president pro tempore, the highest honor the membership could bestow upon one of their fellow members. During the time he was president of the senate he served as acting governor of Arkansas on three different occasions.

Mr. Lookadoo states that he believes with his experience, training and record as a public official, and with a number of years of actual experience in the trial of cases, he, in some degree, is justified in asking voters to elect him prosecuting attorney. He promises, if elected, that he will discharge the duties of the office of the prosecuting attorney in a fair and conscientious manner, using his experience and knowledge of the law to see that the criminal laws are enforced properly and that all the criminal cases be tried without delay. He sincerely solicits your vote.

Voluntary FEPC Won't Do — Truman

Washington, May 25 — (AP) — President Truman today rejected suggestions that a fair employment practice commission (FEPC) be set up on a "voluntary" compliance basis.

Determined southern opposition to this far has blocked senate consideration of a bill to set up an FEPC with compulsory provisions. The bill would bar job discrimination against any person or race, creed, color or national origin.

Some congressmen have proposed a compromise — That FEPC be set up but with compliance on voluntary basis.

No, he would not, the President said with emphasis. Mr. Truman added that we've got that now (voluntary FEPC). The FEPC bill is a keystone of the so-called civil rights proposals which Mr. Truman has repeatedly advocated. His stand embittered many southern Democrats and cost him the electoral votes of four southern states in the 1948 presidential election.

Labor Threatening U. S. Stability Says U. S. C of C

Washington, May 25 — (AP) — The U. S. Chamber of Commerce said today the American Labor movement is threatening the stability of the nation's political system.

In a pamphlet on "Labor Policies" issued today, the chamber said: "The American public may well as itself 'shall the labor block be allowed by default to dominate American politics?'"

The booklet noted that politics is a major interest of organized labor, and added:

Wogman was convicted in the death of William Roy Pierceall, 64, of near Brookland. Pierceall died Feb. 18 of injuries suffered in an altercation in the city jail where both he and Wogman were held on charges of drunkenness.

GOP's Backed in Move to Beat Aid Bill

Washington, May 25 — (AP) — Republican senators put on steam today in a stretch drive to defeat President Truman's $35,000,000 point four plan to aid backward areas of the world.

The decision was due at 3:30 p. m. (EST), when the senate was scheduled to vote on a senate-house conference report on the $3,120,550,000 foreign aid program which contains the point four plan.

Chairman McNamara (D-Tex.) of the senate foreign relations committee said the Democratic leadership and enough votes — some of them Republican — to approve the compromise authorization bill. But senators agreed generally the decision would be close. The senate approved a different version of the point four plan last month only by the margin of a single vote — 37 to 36.

The senate met an hour earlier than usual to wind up the final five and a half hours of debate on the bill which includes the authorization for the European recovery program.

Republicans under the leadership of Senator Taft of Ohio were trying to force the bill back into conference to be stripped of its point four provisions.

Senator Millikin (R-Colo.) said the point four plan — the fourth point in President Truman's 1949 inaugural address — should "not be mixed up with the dying European recovery program" which ends in 1952.

YOU HARDLY KNOW THE ROAD IS THERE!

YOU won't be the first to say that—not by a long shot. One of the first things you notice, when you step from another make of car into Buick, is the wonderful difference in the Buick ride. There are good technical reasons, if they interest you... Soft coil springs all around, the gentlest type of spring man knows how to make. A stout torque-tube, acting like the husky keel of a battleship to steady the whole carriage. Low-pressure tires on wide, Safety-Ride rims, that stop heel-over and sway on curves. Firm, sure, quick-acting shock absorbers, promptly snubbing the after-bounce of the bigger bumps. The important thing is what these all add up to. Freedom at last from jounce and jiggle. A level, floating, road-free passage over almost any kind of road, with even the worst of them tamed and gentled as never before. Add Fireball power to all this — the roominess of wide, deep seats—the lightness of Buick controls and the liquid silkiness of Dynaflo Drive*—and you have a car just too good to miss. Come try one, won't you? Your Buick dealer will be delighted to demonstrate without obligation — delighted to show you that if you can afford a new car, you probably can afford a Buick.

CREAMO ONLY MARGARINE WITH CREAM

Choice of yellow quarters or uncolored pounds

Housewives will be interested to know Creamo Margarine's popularity has grown faster in the past few years than the combined average of all other brands. This is due to the fact that Creamo is the only margarine made with cream.

In taste tests between Creamo and the most expensive type breadspreads, participating school children chose Creamo Margarine 5 to 1.

Users say Creamo's creamy-rich flavor is so distinctively delicious, the first taste is noticeably more flavorful than ordinary spreads. Not only does Creamo taste better—it's more economical, too. The extra flavor goes so much farther than ordinary spreads.

"... draw a bead on Creamo, Mac! It's the only margarine made with cream" (see column at right—)
